

Summer Scholars Resident Counselor Position Description

About Us

The Office of Pre-College Programs enrolls over 1,000 domestic and international high school students in academic programs on the University of Notre Dame's campus, the Notre Dame Global Gateways in Ireland, Italy and South Africa, London, and virtually. These Pre-College programs are designed to mirror the Notre Dame undergraduate experience, starting with the competitive application process. Exceptional students are admitted to college-level academic courses and seminars, and have numerous opportunities to explore campus, engage in community service, and learn from a diverse group of peers all in an independent collegiate environment.

Description

Summer Scholars students are managed by Pre-College ND faculty and staff, and are supervised by a team of Resident Counselors (RCs). RCs live on campus in the program's residence halls and are expected to be engaged with the students and the program. RCs are integral to the success of Summer Scholars because they:

- Ensure the safety and wellbeing of the students.
- Assist with facilitating extracurricular activities and events.
- Serve as a resource, mentor, role model, authoritative figure, and University representative.
- Promote the integration of all aspects of campus life, especially residential, and assist in establishing an environment that supports the University's mission.
- Support, enforce, and abide by all University and Pre-College Program regulations and policies.

Qualifications

Education: Current University of Notre Dame or Saint Mary's College undergraduate or graduate student.

Experience: Must have a demonstrated interest in working with rising high school juniors and seniors in a residential college environment. Student leadership experience is preferred but not required. Must be capable of working both independently as a self-starter and within a team, as well as the ability to work cooperatively to coordinate events and planned activities.

Other: Must maintain a positive and professional demeanor. Must be comfortable with daily contact with faculty, staff, administrators, and students. Excellent interpersonal and communication skills are required.
