Study Abroad Resident Counselor Position Description

About Us
The Office of Pre-College Programs enrolls over 500 domestic and international high school students in academic programs on the University of Notre Dame’s campus and at the Notre Dame Global Gateways in Italy and Ireland. These Pre-College programs are designed to mirror the Notre Dame undergraduate experience, starting with the competitive application process. Exceptional students are admitted to college level academic tracks and seminars, and students traveling abroad experience a balance of time in the classroom as well as experiential learning.

Description
The Study Abroad Resident Counselor’s (SARC) primary role is to supervise and meet the needs of the Pre-College students. This includes, but is not limited to, meeting the students at Chicago O’Hare International Airport and traveling with them to the destination (Rome or Dublin), facilitating activities, guiding and supervising students, purchasing and arranging meals at public establishments, assisting with managing health and nutrition requirements, purchasing tickets for public transportation, providing mentorship and support, enforcing Pre-College rules and regulations, and representing the University of Notre Dame in a manner that is both friendly and professional.

Qualifications
Education: Current University of Notre Dame or Saint Mary’s undergraduate student.

Experience: Must have studied or performed research in Rome (if applying for Study Abroad: Rome) or Dublin (if applying for Study Abroad: Ireland). Basic Italian language skills if applying for Study Abroad: Rome. Demonstrated interest in working with rising high school seniors. Student leadership experience is preferred but not required. Must be capable of working with limited direction as well as the ability to coordinate events and facilitate activities.

Other: Must have the physical and mental capacity to independently perform all duties associated with their role. Notably, the ability to be independently mobile, such as but not limited to, walking on uneven terrain for distances of multiple miles daily, and make sound decisions in crisis situations. Must maintain a positive demeanor and conduct themselves in a professional manner. Must be comfortable with daily contact with faculty, staff, administrators, and students. Must serve as a role model and address student health needs. This role requires excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
