

Leadership Seminars Resident Counselor Position Description

About Us

The Office of Pre-College Programs enrolls over 1000 domestic and international high school students in academic programs on the University of Notre Dame's campus, the Notre Dame Global Gateways in Ireland, Italy and South Africa, and virtually. These Pre-College programs are designed to mirror the Notre Dame undergraduate experience, starting with the competitive application process. Exceptional students are admitted to college level academic tracks and seminars, and have numerous opportunities to explore campus, engage in community service, and learn from a diverse group of peers all in an independent collegiate environment.

Description

Leadership Seminars students are managed by Pre-College ND faculty and staff, and are supervised by a team of Resident Counselors (RCs). RCs live on campus in the program's residence halls and are expected to be engaged with the students and the program. RCs are integral to the success of Leadership Seminars because they:

- Ensure the safety and wellbeing of the students.
- Assist with facilitating extracurricular activities and events.
- Serve as a resource, mentor, role model, authoritative figure and University representative.
- Promote the integration of all aspects of campus life, especially residential, and assist in establishing an environment that supports the University's mission.
- Support, enforce, and abide by all University and Pre-College Program regulations and policies.
